

WASHINGTON FAMILY RANCH

This property is more of a resort than a camp. The lodging is fantastic and the chapel is tremendous. The facility also sports an IMMENSE gym with four full-length wood basketball courts, three world class climbing pillars, an indoor skateboarding/inline skate-park, weight area, dozens of game tables and enough room left over for an indoor soccer arena. Check it out at www.wfr.younglife.org

Directions: Directions and map to Washington Family Ranch can be found under Camp Contact Info "Get Driving Directions" on wfr web-page.

Arrival Time: Registration available in Hotel Lobby from 11:00 AM-2:00 PM. Kitchen Crew Orientation 2:00 PM. Official kickoff will be during the Evening General Session.

Registration: A non-refundable deposit of $50 per person and a completed registration form is due postmarked by Friday, Dec 2nd. Registration forms for your group and kitchen workers may be downloaded from www.teenleadershipconference.com. Click on the "forms" tab, download the forms and follow the payment instructions on the registration forms. Please note you may pay by one check or via PayPal at www.bnnnyouth.com.

PLEASE REMEMBER: you must provide adequate men and women leaders for your group!

DON'T FORGET: The Guest Consent Release Form must be completed by everyone, including adults, organized alphabetically and turned in at registration. Keep a copy for your records. There is a copy of WA Family Ranch's privacy policy on the TLC webpage under forms. We have been asked to have all attendees receive a copy of this document; it does not have to be signed and returned.

T-Shirts: Everyone registering by December 2nd will receive a free T-shirt! Those registering after December 2nd will not be guaranteed a t-shirt.

Kitchen Crew: Each church is asked to provide at least 2 kitchen crew members or 1 worker per every 10 people you bring. Minimum age is 14 and those serving in the kitchen will miss most of the conference. Kitchen crew registration is free, but workers must be registered; registration form is listed on TLC webpage under the "forms" tab.

Sports

We will run "pick up" games on a first-come, first served basis. Times will be listed in the schedule when groups or individuals can show up to play. Show up with your team, or be ready to join a team at the scheduled time and we will set up a game with another team. We will help organize "pick up" games for volleyball, basketball, flag football, and soccer.

Late Night Snack

Your youth group will be given an opportunity to meet together for fellowship, prayer, worship, and sharing on the last evening of TLC. Many groups like to provide a snack for this special time together!

TEEN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

“THEREFORE I URGE YOU, BRETHREN, BY THE MERCIES OF GOD, TO PRESENT YOUR BODIES A LIVING AND HOLY SACRIFICE, ACCEPTABLE TO GOD, WHICH IS YOUR SPIRITUAL SERVICE OF WORSHIP. AND DO NOT BE CONFORMED TO THIS WORLD, BUT BE TRANSFORMED BY THE RENEWING OF YOUR MIND, SO THAT YOU MAY PROVE WHAT THE WILL OF GOD IS, THAT WHICH IS GOOD AND ACCEPTABLE AND PERFECT.” ROMANS 12:1-2

TLC 2011

December 28-30th

Make plans now to attend Northwest Youth Ministries 2011 Teen Leadership Conference—“Inside Out.” This conference will encourage your students in their walk with Christ!

Students and leaders will be challenged through intentionally planned general sessions and workshops. Your students will be able to choose from 14 workshops addressing spiritual maturity and a personal walk with Christ!

Keynote Speaker:

We are excited to welcome Pastor Barry Bandara as our 2011 Teen Leadership Conference Keynote Speaker. Barry is a graduate of Liberty University and has invested 20 years of his life in the students of the West Coast, having led youth ministries with 10 to 750 students. He was used of the Lord in the formation of TLC in the Northwest, helping lay the foundation that has carried this ministry to what it is today. Pastor Bandara is the Senior Pastor at Silverdale Baptist in Silverdale, WA, leading this church since 2005. He and his wife Candy have three daughters, Ashley, Holly, and Kailey. Barry is a great communicator as seen in his ministry as a pastor, preacher, speaker and author. His soon to be released book entitled “Dream House,” published by Overboard Ministries will be available October, 2011.
